

Congo Brazzaville

SEA profile

Updated to: 02 September 2019

Establishing context

Implementing SEA

Informing decision making

Follow-up

SEA practice

Background information

History of SEA

One of the peculiarities of Decree 2009/415 the definition of a project includes plans and development programs. When plans or programs are expected to have an impact on the environment or health, they are subject to an impact assessment study. The decree does not provide a distinct procedure for SEA, but follows the same procedure as environmental and social impact assessment and notice.

Legal framework

Institutional setting

Contact